

Planning and Economic Development

200 NE Moe Street Poulsbo, Washington 98370-7347
(360) 394-9748 | plan&econ@cityofpoulsbo.com
www.cityofpoulsbo.com/economic-development/

PEOPLE

13,110

Population

2,807

People/Sq. Mile

51%/49%

Female/Male

43.3

Median Age

49%

Bachelor's Degree or Higher

PLACE

Kitsap

County

4.67

Land (sq. mi.)

3.93

Shoreline (miles)

1908

Incorporated

68°F

Ave. July Temp

41°F

Ave. Dec Temp

WWU ON THE PENINSULA

OLYMPIC COLLEGE

39,000 sq. ft. facility located on a 20-acre campus. Offering two-year, four-year, and certificate programs.

Olympic College's Poulsbo Campus is becoming a regional hub for allied health education, preparing students for high-demand healthcare careers while supporting the region's growing workforce needs.

Marina Market in Downtown Poulsbo carries over 600 varieties of licorice.

Three

No. of Marinas

FUN FACTS

Sluys Bakery in Downtown Poulsbo has been serving up doughy sweets since 1966.

80 miles from Hurricane Ridge: summer hiking & winter snowshoeing.

SIX

No. of Art Galleries

149

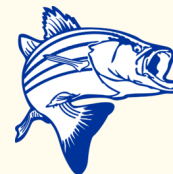

Acres of Parks

20

City Parks

5.84

Trails (miles)

FISH PARK

40 acre urban nature park on Liberty Bay Estuary and Dogfish Creek. 1.5 miles of trails, boardwalk and viewing platforms.

BREWERIES

Rainy Daze Brewing

Valholl Brewing

Echoes Brewing

Kitsap Peninsula National Water Trails was designated by the US Department of Interior in 2014 as part of the National Water Trails System, the first in WA State and the only natural, saltwater trail in USA.

More than 80 public access sites for launching, landing, camping, and day use.

KPNWT encompasses 371 MILES of shoreline

CENTRAL LOCATION

Distance (in miles)

Bainbridge Island Ferry (to Seattle) --	12
Kingston Ferry -----	10
Port Townsend Ferry -----	54
Victoria Ferry (Port Angeles) -----	61
Puget Sound Naval Shipyard -----	17
Naval Base Kitsap -----	9
Keyport Naval Undersea Museum ---	6
Hood Canal Bridge -----	9
Tacoma -----	48
Olympia -----	75

★ Center of our universe.

KNOWN AS

Viking City and Little Norway

Founded by Norwegian immigrant Jorgen Eliason in the 1880s, Poulsbo was settled in its early years by a large number of Norwegian and other Scandinavian immigrants because of its similarities to their native countries.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Viking Fest
Summer Nights at the Bay
Farmers Market
Poulsbo Artwalk
Ghoulsbo Halloween
Tree Lighting
Jule Fest
Lighted Ship Parade
Poulsbo Film Festival
Blues & Jazz Festival

LIVING

5,481

Total Housing Units

593%

Owner Occupied

2.24

Avg Household Size

$620,100

Med. Home Value

$116,250

Med. Household Income

92%

HS Graduation Rate

Named one of the BEST SMALL TOWNS in U.S. by The Guardian.

8,000 lbs 7'6" tall

Life-like Octopus sculpture created by Mark Gale.
Located outside the SEA Discovery Center in Downtown Poulsbo.

More than 1,000
Businesses in the 98370 zip code.

