

Puget Sound Regional Council

Erickson and Somers to lead PSRC

I am happy to share that PSRC's General Assembly has unanimously elected Poulsbo Mayor Becky Erickson as President and Snohomish County Executive Dave Somers as Vice-President. We are very lucky to have their leadership. Both Mayor Erickson and Executive Somers have been long-time regional leaders with vital experience and expertise to bring to our work. Thank you to our outgoing President, King County Councilmember Claudia Balducci, who has given us an incredible path these last two years. Learn more about the event.

Gil Penalosa delivers inspiring talk on sustainability, health and safety

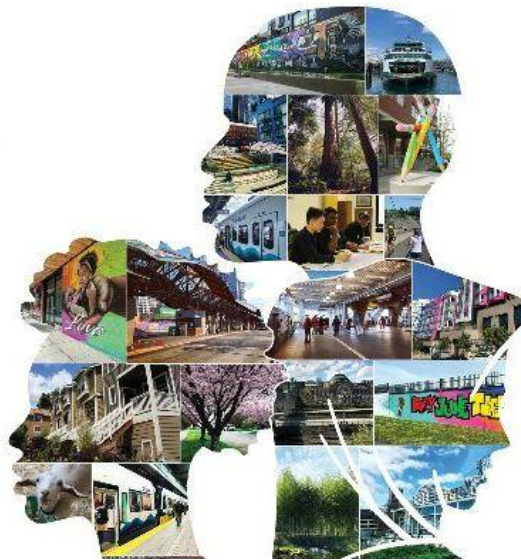

We were very lucky to have renowned sustainability expert Gil Penalosa speak to our General Assembly. He shared a vision for how to grow in an equitable way that promotes health and well-being, touching on issues related to safety, climate, quality of life, physical activity and even how connectivity can make a city more fun. You can watch his talk starting at 1:13:00 on this video.

Annual Report: PSRC's year in review

ANNUAL REPORT

May 2023

We have achieved so much in the past year due to the hard work of our leadership, staff, the region's elected officials and member jurisdictions to create an equitable and affordable central Puget Sound. Read about progress we've made on equity, housing, transportation, comprehensive planning and economic development. We record it all in our Annual Report.

General Assembly adopts 2024-2025 Budget and Work Program

Our budget is a blueprint guiding PSRC's work over the next two years. It is a balanced budget that supports PSRC's regional planning mission and builds the agency's reserves. Since 2015, we have been working to create a two-month operating costs contingency reserve and we have reached it with the adoption of this budget. View the document.

Upcoming opportunities

- Climate Pollution Reduction Grant Program

- Washington State Public Works funding for infrastructure

I welcome your feedback on our work at PSRC. You can reach me at jbrown@psrc.org. Stay well!

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Josh". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping 'J' and a cursive 'osh'.

Josh Brown
Executive Director
Puget Sound Regional Council